The 75th Anniversary of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Days Commemorated with
Hundreds of Grass-roots Actions Worldwide,
Calling for the Abolition of Nuclear Weapons

Peace Wave Swept around the World from August 6 to 9, 2020

Many thanks to you all, from the grass-roots peace groups/individuals to international organizations for joining the Peace Wave that circled around the globe from August 6 to 9. Numerous reports/plans, news articles/clippings, movies on YouTube and webinar results reached us from 24 countries. We have been deeply impressed and amazed by the strong commitment expressed by the peace movements to the cause of creating a nuclear weapon-free world. Please refer also to more listing of activities on the Peace Wave News Vol.1, Vol.2 and Vol.3.

Peace Wave Kite-Flying conducted by the Pilonos family of Santiago, the Philippines on August 6

Japan

Peace Wave grass-roots activities were carried out in hundreds of cities/towns all over Japan in all 47 prefectures. Results of the activities are still coming in and are available from Gensuikyo website: (in Japanese).

2020 World Conference against A and H Bombs, August 2 – 9 (online)

The 2020 World Conference against A and H Bombs was held successfully with the International Meeting on August 2, World Conference-Hiroshima Day on August 6 and World Conference-Nagasaki Day on August 9. From all over the world, several thousands of people joined in the programs through Zoom and YouTube livestreaming. In addition, 4 special forums were held on different themes: (1) Supporting the Hibakusha, inheriting and disseminating their stories; (2) Solidarity with Okinawa and dismantling of foreign military bases; (3) Solidarity with the Hibakusha and Agent Orange/dioxin victims and (4) A nuclear-free, peaceful Northeast Asia and the role of peace movements. You can access the speech texts and watch the recordings of these programs: http://www.antiatom.org/english/world_conference/

75 Jahre Hiroshima und Nagasaki: Atomwaffenverbot jetzt!

75 years ago today, the United States dropped an atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Hiroshima. More than 100,000 people were killed in the bomb. On the occasion of today's memorial day, the peace movement organized more than 180 memorial events that will take place today and in the coming days. Today we want to give you an overview of the dates, our large-scale campaign and the campaign website www.hiroshima-nagasaki.info.

Starting today there will be activities by local peace groups in numerous cities. You will find an overview of 180 entries in the calendar of the Friedenskooperative network. Is there an action in your town too? Take a look and get active! The demand for the disarmament of nuclear weapons can only be realized if enough people take to the streets to do so. You can find all dates here:

PAX: Commemorative Actions in Dutch Cities & Petition to PM Mark Rutte

With your support, last week we saw creative actions in 10 Dutch cities, from Almelo to Zouterwoude, to honour the victims and survivors of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Some chose to fold paper cranes to honour and remember the tragic story of the young girl, Sasako, whose dying wish was to end nuclear horrors. Thousands signed our petition to prime minister Rutte. Dutch Members of Parliament, civil society organizations, political youth parties and faith communities spoke out against nuclear weapons.

Though the Dutch government was silent, other governments used this opportunity to speak loudly. UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres, the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), the Pope, NZ Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern and many others did the same. Ireland, Nigeria, Niue and St Kitts and Nevis showed real leadership by ratifying the TPNW.

Thousands of people across the Netherlands signed a petition asking Mark Rutte to recognize the humanitarian consequences of nuclear weapons and use this 75th anniversary to say “Never Again”. Watch the action video here. Motivated by the stories of the survivors and their courageous leadership in the fight against nuclear weapons, we will keep pushing, until the Netherlands signs the TPNW, and until all nuclear weapons are eliminated. Thanks for reading!

A Nagasaki Day commemoration event at the Nagasaki Peace Bell which stands in front of the Henri Dunant Museum in Heiden, 10:30-11:30, August 9

The Peace Bell is one of five copies of the Angelus bells from the Urakami Cathedral in Nagasaki. The church was destroyed in the atomic blast of August 9, 1945, but one of bells survived and its ringing symbolises hope for peace, life and the abolition of nuclear weapons. The Nagasaki Peace Bell in Heiden, a gift from Nagasaki, arrived there in 2010 in honour of the legacy of Henri Dunant, the founder of the International Red Cross. The bell is rung each year on August 9th in commemoration of the Nagasaki Bombing and as a prayer for peace and nuclear abolition. The program includes the speakers of the IPPNW, Marzhan Nurzhan (Kazakhstan) of Basel Peace Office and music. Website:

Commemoration of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Luneville

In Luneville, as in other cities in France, the pacifists were keen to commemorate the nuclear horrors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and to demonstrate with the French Peace Movement to sign the Nuclear Weapons Ban Treaty. We had fixed for Friday August 07 a 1st meeting in front of the Town hall at 6.30 pm where there were a good ten of us despite the heat; and the second part of the evening from 7 p.m. at Place Léopold to end with a vigil. Although it is August, around 20 supporters have responded to our call. The improvised nocturnal exhibition on Hiroshima with paper lanterns would have to be repeated I think. The last of us left after 10:15 p.m. I will share the photos of the Eastern Republican press correspondent with you as soon as we have the story of our rally. I am attaching photos of the 2nd part of the evening to you. Good week starts.

Peace March by Audois Peace Committee, Caunes Minervois, August 9

For the third time the municipality of Caunes Minervois welcomed the peace walkers for their traditional hike, which commemorates the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. By 8:30 am, the marchers gathered in the abbey gardens to tackle the climb up the quarry alley. They walked over the village, passing the Aude plain and further on overlooking the Alaric, Corbières and Pyrenees. When they returned to village, they were greeted by the mayor of the town, Jean Louis Petit and his deputy Christophe Varennes and the pacifist friends. The city councilor welcomed the pacifist activists and praised their cause. Then the president of the Audois peace committee, Bernard Gils recalled the meaning of this day, thanked the municipality as well as the departmental and regional council and other partners for their support. The afternoon continued in a friendly and fraternal atmosphere around a meal taken from the bag taken in the shade of the abbey gardens and the presentation of a souvenir gift to all participants.

Commemorative Action in Saint Malo, August 8

Fifteen activists united for the eradication of nuclear weapons in support for the Hibakusha. The Peace Movement mobilized on August 8, in the afternoon, about fifteen of its activists near the Bains-Chauds hold. In this year commemorating 75 years of the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, peace advocates wanted to draw the attention of passers-by to the need to end the nuclear arms race. "Seven countries, including France, have not yet signed the nuclear weapons prohibition treaty (TIAN)", recalled the spokesperson Reine Thoré, denouncing the fact that France, in the last five years, has seen its budget devoted to nuclear weapons to increase from 3.5 to 7 billion euros. Also present was the Rennais Roland Nivet, who on the night from Saturday to Sunday, is due to speak during a video conference as part of the global campaign against the bombings on Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Action to Commemorate Hiroshima Day at Aviano USAF Base by Blessed Peacemakers

TGR Friuli Venezia Giulia --

Hiroshima Day Peace Action was held in front of Aviano USAF Base in Italy. Peace activists gathered with rainbow flags of peace to recall what happened on 6 and 9 August 1945 in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The event this year was deliberately held in a more contained form, people counted, social distancing, mask to cover nose and mouth ... the Coronavirus, they said, taught us that we can be threatened by something invisible but dangerous, like nuclear weapons. Which are not seen but are there. The two F16 patrols and 8 planes disturbed the demonstration several times. The event was joined by a 19-year old young activist of the Fridays for Future.

Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament on the 2020 Peace Wave

CND was delighted to be a part of the 2020 Peace Wave in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. We encouraged all our supporters to mark the moments that the bombs fell (but in UK time), with a silent period of reflection. We designed a cherry blossom poster for anyone to download, and asked supporters to take the poster to somewhere quiet and peaceful at the designated times and take a moment in silence to consider how the devastation caused in Hiroshima and Nagasaki should spur us on to campaign even harder for a world without these weapons of mass destruction.

CND nationally organised two main events as part of the Peace Wave, both online and viewed by hundreds. We organised a music evening in memory of the victims of nuclear and a webinar with Japanese and American activists to discuss the effect of the bombings on the campaigns in the respective countries. CND groups across the UK also arranged in-person and online vigils, rallies and candle-floating events to join the international activity. (Please refer to the PWN Vol 1-3.)

#StillHere: 75 Years of Shared Nuclear Legacy: August 6-9 (national virtual event) and numerous local events (with map —Very impressive!)

Thank you for being one of the thousands that joined us last week to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the United States' nuclear attacks on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Those solemn days mark the beginning of the nuclear era and a shared nuclear threat that we are all still facing today. But as you saw during the event, we have hope. Hope that people are waking up to the dangers posed by these weapons and demanding that leaders make a change.

If you'd like to continue working toward that change please look at our list of partners. Each organization is approaching the problem in their own way, but each group could use your help. To get a brief overview of the main issues the groups are working on you can also check out our issues page.

Finally we ask, on behalf our partners in Japan, that you please sign the hibakusha appeal. This petition, created by the survivors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, calls for a world without nuclear weapons. Thank you again for joining our event, and if you'd ever like to watch it again you can find it here on YouTube. Wishing you peace, - The #StillHere Team

We have the recordings or press coverage of some of our events on this webpage: <https://www.panys.org/2020-07-28-hiroshimanagasaki-75/>. When I have additional time, I will try to compile a more complete report with more photos/ events. We had around 15 events that we or our local chapters were involved in across the state! Thank you for all your hard work. Looking forward to hearing about some of the other Peace Wave events! Peace, Contact: Emily Rubino, emily.rubino@panys.org

Massachusetts Peace Action: Thank You for Commemorating Hiroshima & Nagasaki

Last week, as advocates for peace, we gathered across the Commonwealth to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Posters, candles, and keyboards in hand, we collectively remembered the horror that happened 75 years ago, and called for an end to the nuclear weapons that caused it.

We gathered in person, and online, from Andover to Fall River to Cambridge, where we confronted our local warmaker, Raytheon, and demanded that they cease and desist from developing nuclear weapons. We were broadcasted locally, and internationally. And our message was made clear- NO MORE NUCLEAR WEAPONS!

See the Movie: Hiroshima Day at Raytheon by Skip Shiel

The Hibakusha, or survivors, have called for the abolition of nuclear weapons for 75 years since the bombings upended their lives. Now, it is our turn to carry on their legacy, and keep fighting until there are no more nuclear weapons. Join Massachusetts Peace Action and peace groups across the state as the fight continues for a world free of nuclear weapons.

Massachusetts Peace Action, along with a coalition of progressive groups including CodePink, WAND, and WILPF, on Tuesday delivered a petition with over 4,800 signatures to the presidential campaigns of President Donald Trump and presumptive Democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden urging both 2020 candidates to incorporate “a vision for peace and serious nuclear disarmament” into their platforms. National Capital Area Hiroshima Virtual Commemoration by Hiroshima-Nagasaki Peace Committee

On August 6, the 39th annual National Capital Area Hiroshima Virtual Commemoration featured, "Lost Generation," a color documentary about the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Following the film, Leslie Susan, author of Choosing Life, discussed how her father, Herbert Sussan, directed the filming of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945 and 46 and spent the remainder of his life trying to get the footage released. Professor Peter Kuznick introduced the program and Dennis Nelson, a Downwinder, concluded the discussion.

On August 8, an in-person "Candlelight Vigil" will be held at Liberty Plaza (17th and G Streets, NW), Washington, D.C., on August 8, at 9:45pm (EST). Those planning to attend are encouraged to bring candles, peace ribbons or other signs. Moment's silence at 10:02pm.

"Protesters want nukes on people's minds", August 9, Brattleboro, VT

BRATTLEBORO — A small group of activists marched down Main Street in protest of nuclear weapons and excessive military spending, calling attention to the 75th anniversary of America’s bombing of the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki during World War II.... Eesha and Elizabeth Williams of New Leaf CSA in Dummerston invited fellow activists to Sunday’s demonstration. About 11 people showed up Sunday at the Brattleboro Common to march to the Brattleboro Food-Coop. Being unsure of interest in the days leading up to the event, Eesha Williams called the turnout “great.” “Peace isn’t even trending and we got some people,” said Kurt Daims of Brattleboro.

Service of Re-Membering and Recommitting to Peace in our World, August 9th 10:00 am, Meriden Congregational Church, UCC, Meriden, NH

We are thrilled to consider our service tomorrow as part of the global Peace Wave marking the 75th anniversary of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Our hearts are heavy with this remembrance, and we are so grateful to you for allowing us to join waving for peace and justice in and throughout our world. Our Communion Service this morning will be dedicated to remembering this solemn anniversary, and re-dedicating ourselves to a nuclear weapon-free, peaceful and just world. As part of our service, we will encourage signing of the Hibakusha Appeal Petition. In solidarity and hope,

Hiroshima Commemoration Gathering in Newton (Boston), MA, 6 August 5pm EDT by WILPF Boston Branch

WILPF US Boston made good use of the thousand peace cranes the Ehime Council sent us, to honor the Hibakusha. The branch and other peace activists made hundreds of peace crane pins with messages and handed them out to friends and activists at four rallies in the suburbs of Boston, MA, including one rally on August 6th in Newton where 30 attended and August 9 in Watertown where 60 attended. WILPF participated in a TV talk show regarding the somber anniversary. Members sent a letter to the Newton newspaper and three news writers reported on the August 6 and 9th rallies and the library exhibit WILPF set up on the lawn of the Newton Free Library from August 5 to 10.

The library exhibit consisted of 11 signs with drapes of paper cranes; it depicted an updated history of 1945, including the bombings, the formation of the United Nations and the story of Sadako. It also provided crane pins and messages with links to Hibakusha and signing the U.N. Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons. “Many thanks for honoring us to spread the message using your paper peace cranes. More people are LISTENING now.”

Ringling of Japanese Peace Bell in Des Moines, IA, 6 August by WILPF Des Moines Branch

On August 6, the WILPF Des Moines Iowa Branch joined other members from the Peace Community in a commemorative bell ringing at the Japanese Bell of Peace and Friendship, on Thursday, August 6, the day and hour of the 75th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima. The bell is located on the south side of East Court across from the Iowa State Capitol. After a brief program attendees laid flowers at the bell and rang it 75 times, designating the 75 years since the World War II bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. “We’ll offer everyone a crane attached by yarn to a history of the 1000 cranes and thank you from our Friends in Japan who provided these wonderful cranes. Then WILPFers will distribute the cranes outside the public Library and at the sculpture park adjacent to it following our ceremony.” Please view the photos from our August 6 event, by Jon Kreig, WILPF DM Member. Rodger Routh, also a Des Moines Branch member, created two videos. <https://youtu.be/jPLd3WfC7w8> <https://youtu.be/wo1cJhRHJRg> Also see the coverage by our Local TV station, channel 5.

Peace Crane Displays and Story of Sadako: East Bay Branch of the WILPF, CA

Our branch was honored to receive over a thousand cranes from Hibakusha in Japan. To commemorate the 75th Anniversary of the United States dropping atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, we created two displays for peace, using the cranes and telling the story of Sadako Sasaki. One is a photo of the window display at

Pegasus Bookstore in Berkeley, CA; The women in the photo are members of our local WILPF branch who helped string the cranes and create the display. Thank you for all of your work on the Peace Wave. It's a wonderful idea. Contact: Sandy Thacker, Sandy@tio.net

Ground Zero Center for Nonviolent Action: Peace activists block highway entrance to the Trident nuclear submarine base at Bangor in 75th remembrance of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Atomic Bombings, August 10

25 people were present on August 10th at a demonstration against Trident nuclear weapons at the Bangor submarine base. The demonstration was in the roadway at the Main Gate of the Trident nuclear submarine base during rush hour traffic.

At around 6:45 AM on Monday, demonstrators arrived at the Main Gate and formed a vigil line along the roadway. At around 7:05 AM, four "peacekeepers" entered the roadway and stopped traffic, while behind them, six demonstrators set themselves and their banners on the roadway. Three of the demonstrators carried a banner stating, "Hiroshima Nagasaki Never Again!" Two demonstrators held a blue painted banner stating, "No More Genocide in My Name." One demonstrator carried a banner, "Peace Walk Nuclear-Free World, Black Lives Matter." At the same time, three demonstrators held a large banner on the Clear Creek Road NW overpass near the Main Gate that stated, "Renounce Militarism Defund the Pentagon."

Linda Richards, Corvallis Oregon -- a Mayors for Peace City

Hi Antiatom!! A thousand blessings to you for asking! It was so neat to be a part of things all over the world. Your email was so wonderful to just ask us now what we did to mark this significant year. We are in Corvallis Oregon a Mayor for Peace city so we had an international academic workshop on line to honor the Hibakusha this year.

See <http://blogs.oregonstate.edu/downwinders/events/making-the-unseen-visible-2020/> for the program but also this was a part of it. Please make sure to share this interview with Hideko Tamura Snider, Medford OR resident and Hiroshima Hibakusha on Democracy Now:

I hope her words will fly around the world like Sadako's wish for her peace cranes to create global nuclear abolition in our lifetime. (Linda also shared the Uranium Atlas, a co-publication of the Nuclear Free Future Foundation, Beyond Nuclear, Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung and the IPPNW.) I viewed on line both the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Commemorations with my family so it was very special. I attended some activists zoom sessions too so it was very overwhelming but in the most motivating of ways. Thank you for all your work. Luvaction,

International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN): 75th Anniversary Website

To commemorate the 75th anniversary of the atomic bombing, ICAN set up a special website: <https://rise.icanw.org/>. For campaigners it offers a lot of resources for the anniversary, including the testimonies of the Hibakusha, exhibitions, information on Hiroshima/Nagasaki, etc.

On August 9, ICAN released an interview of Tanaka Terumi, Nagasaki Hibakusha:

<https://vimeo.com/445932753> In this message (recorded in Hiroshima on August 5th) Mr.

Tanaka reflects on what this lifetime of activism has meant to him and the hopes he has for the UN Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear weapons, and for the younger generations.

Healing Not Killing -- International Fast and Action

“I hope your commemorations have been very successful and certainly the Peace Wave was very impressive. The fast which I am just finishing has been moving and well followed - lots of international exchanges. I attach a photo of me outside our Ministry of Defence - waving your Peace fans and the nice tee-shirt you gave me. Pity the CND banner is wrong way round but never mind. Greetings to all at Gensuikyo.”

UNFOLD ZERO: Move the Nuclear Weapons Money

Peace and disarmament organisations around the world commemorated the 75th anniversaries of Hiroshima and Nagasaki nuclear bombings on August 6 and 9 with numerous events and actions. A number of these highlighted the role of the nuclear weapons industry in maintaining and expanding the nuclear arms race, and promoted the Move the Nuclear Weapons Money campaign. The campaign works to cut nuclear weapons budgets and investments, and move these to instead support peace, public health, economic recovery, climate protection and sustainable development.

In Switzerland an event held in Heiden on Nagasaki Day in front of the Henri Dunant Museum also highlighted the Move the Nuclear Weapons Money campaign. Switzerland is one of four countries which has implemented nuclear weapons divestment policies at federal level, having adopted legislation in 2013. This has led to divestment by most Swiss pension funds from the nuclear weapons industry. A number of legislators (parliamentarians) active in the Move the Nuclear Weapons Money campaign also led parliamentary actions for the Hiroshima and Nagasaki commemorations. U.S. Senator Ed Markey, a Co-President of Parliamentarians for Nuclear Non-proliferation and Disarmament (PNND), released a statement on Hiroshima Day and calling on the United States to 'ensure that the events of August 1945 will never be repeated.' He calls for a slashing of the U.S. nuclear weapons budget in order to fund renewable energy, health, education and a sustainable economy. Bill Kidd MSP, another Co-President of PNND, introduced a motion in the Scottish Parliament commemorating the 75th anniversaries of Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombings and highlighting the humanitarian impact of any use of nuclear weapons. In conjunction with the Hiroshima and Nagasaki remembrance week, the Move the Nuclear Weapons Money campaign posted on social media a number of supporting memes (quotes with photos) from parliamentarians, medical professionals, religious leaders, disarmament experts and peace activists.

Don't Bank on the Bomb

As the world remembered the horrors of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki last week. "Don't Bank on the Bomb" campaign presented an brief overview of some anniversary activities by governments, financial institutions and people. (Excerpts: Read full article here.) Financial sector voices against nuclear weapons: Hiroshima Bank announced a policy banning investments in companies involved in the production and development of inhumane weapons, including nuclear weapons. Other financial institutions, like Zevin Aset Management, joined the commemoration of Hiroshima and Nagasaki by explaining their policies and how they contribute to a world without nuclear weapons. Learn what makes a policy worthy of the Hall of Fame. Four more countries ratify nuclear ban: On 6 August, Ireland, Nigeria and Niue ratified the TPNW. St Kitts and Nevis followed on 9 August....only six more ratifications are needed before the Treaty enters into force!

Setsuko Thurlow's fight against nuclear weapons: Hiroshima Survivor Sestuko Thurlow (Nobel Peace Laureate of 2017 on behalf of ICAN) currently lives in Canada, and has just joined the Canadian Network Against Nuclear Weapons to launch a national nuclear weapon divestment effort. The New York Times interviewed Setsuko Thurlow for the anniversary.

Recommended Reading: Daughters of the bomb: my reckoning with Hiroshima, 75 years later is an excellent story about grappling with nuclear weapons, racism, and family, and tells the story of survivors and their fight that connects with the civil rights movement and black lives matter today.
